ABOUT THE WEBINAR: The pandemic, working from home, and the associated issues facing firms in the last two years have made mentorship and development of younger construction lawyers a difficult exercise. Join us as two practitioners pass down wisdom learned from the best (and tried by fire) that will help you navigate your next construction dispute. This seminar will include tips and tricks for effective use of written discovery, deposition strategies, development of persuasive case themes, motion practice, and dealing with difficult opposition and clients. Whether you are (relatively) new to the practice of law, or just want to fine tune your practice, this value-packed seminar intends to shave years off the learning curve for the under-a-decade lawyer, or at least eliminate some stress!
